CLOSING THOUGHTS

CLOSING THOUGHTS ON THIS PUPPY

PUPPY SNAP: This pup is meeting his milestones and has appropriate development. He is the most reserved of the three puppies but does interact and engage with time. He is friendly and likes to have 1v1 time. He doesn't rough and tumble like the other two and is a watcher. He most likely will have a sensitive side and will display "human like" characteristics with certain situations (emotions, body language, ect). Snap will make a great pup for most families. He will be a great first family puppy and the best fit is a family who is committed to the puppy training stages and is ready to bring him everywhere over the first year of life. Level bite can become under or overbite easily. We do not cover dentition concerns.
